Dear Mr Orpen

RETENTION OF ACCREDITATION STATUS BY THE INSITUTE OF PEOPLE DEVELOPMENT TRADING AS THE WORKPLACE SKILLS SOLUTIONS

In terms of the Education, Training and Development Practices Sector Education and Training Authority (ETDP SETA) mandate as stipulated in the South African Qualifications Authority Act No 58 of 1995 and the ETQA Regulations No R1127 of 1998 the SETA is required to accredit and quality assure constituent education, training and development providers within its primary focus.

At the ETDP SETA ETDQA Joint Standing Committee meeting of 28-29 November 2005, a decision was taken to re-accredit The Institute of People Development trading as Workplace Skills Solutions as a constituent provider within the primary focus of the ETDP SETA for the period 29 November 2005 until 29 November 2010 for all qualifications and/or unit standards that your organisation have been previously accredited for.

I congratulate The Institute of People Development trading as Workplace Skills Solutions on this achievement.

Yours faithfully

Ms Nombulelo Nxesi
Chief Executive Officer
